

Candace Fleming, author, to visit Edgeworth and Osborne Elementary Schools On February 10th!

Candace is the versatile and acclaimed author of more than forty books for children and young adults, including the bestselling picture book, Muncha! Muncha! Muncha!; the Sibert-Award-winning Giant Squid; and Strongheart: Wonder Dog of the Silver Screen.

School Assembly for Kindergarten, First, and Second Grade students.

7 PM Evening Presentation at the Sewickley Public Library is open to all students and families.

Please register at <https://Sewickleylibrary.org> or by phone 412-741-6920

Books can be pre-ordered for autographs at Penguin Bookshop prior to the author visit at penguinbookshop.com, click on the link for Candace Fleming.

When placing online orders “Order Comments”, indicate your child’s name and school, so books may be delivered once signed PLEASE ORDER NO LATER THAN FEBRUARY 3 to ensure your child receives the book of their choice.*

Candace Fleming’s visit is brought to us by the Sewickley Area Libraries (SAL), which is a collaborative organization providing programming for our school libraries, public library and local independent bookstore in the Quaker Valley, Sewickley Academy and St. James schools, the Sewickley Public Library and Penguin Bookshop.